

Liberty Enterprise Transformation and Innovation Hub Limited (LETIH)

Corporate Profile & Enterprise Ecosystem Overview

Liberty Enterprise Transformation and Innovation Hub Limited (LETIH) is a multi-sector enterprise development, incubation, acceleration, and investment facilitation platform designed to transform startups, SMEs, and individuals into scalable, investment-ready enterprises.

Vision

To become a leading enterprise transformation ecosystem in Africa driving innovation, wealth creation, and inclusive economic growth.

Mission

To develop, support, and scale enterprises through incubation, skills development, innovation systems, investment facilitation, and strategic partnerships.

Core Service Offerings

- Business incubation and acceleration programmes
- Enterprise advisory, mentorship and coaching
- Skills development and capacity building
- Investment and finance facilitation
- Innovation, research and technology advancement
- Market access and value chain integration
- Project development and PPP structuring
- Consultancy and transformation services

Value Proposition

LETIH integrates incubation, funding access, skills development, innovation support, and market linkage into a single ecosystem that reduces business failure rates and accelerates enterprise growth.

Business Model

Revenue streams include training programmes, consultancy services, incubation participation models, investment facilitation fees, PPP project development, and enterprise support services.

Impact Areas

- Job creation and youth employment
- SME growth and sustainability

- Innovation commercialization
- Financial inclusion and access to capital
- Women and youth empowerment
- Economic diversification and transformation

Strategic Partnerships

Government agencies, development finance institutions, private investors, corporates, and international development organizations.

Conclusion

LETIH is positioned as a transformational ecosystem designed to convert ideas into enterprises and enterprises into sustainable economic value.